New Year's Resolutions—It's Not Too Late!

Our San Jose/Peninsula PFLAG Chapter would not exist without many generous gifts of time, energy, creativity and funds — from you, our valued members and friends.

We rely on you for funding our cable TV program, scholarships, newsletter, outreach, libraries, and much more. Your financial support is critical, but your willingness to work on carrying out the PFLAG mission of education, advocacy and support is just as essential. We are deeply grateful for your support!

If you haven't recently volunteered, please look inside this newsletter for some great opportunities. Sign up to bring refreshments to a meeting. Help us find speakers and programs that meet your needs and the needs of newcomers. Lend a hand to help with our Scholarship Awards program. Sign up to be our next Treasurer! And it's not too early to let us know that you'll help out with San Francisco or San Jose Pride. Look at the "OPEN" holes in the list of Board Members and Supports on page 4 — and think about where you can step up to fill a need and have some fun, too.

So send in your dues and put PFLAG on your list of New Year's Resolutions—somewhere near the top! Our survival as a PFLAG Chapter and as an agent of positive change for families, friends, and members of the LGBT community depends on you!

We wish you and your loved ones a happy, healthy and fulfilling 2015.

Triptych: Film and discussion with Pam Walton.

Triptych is about three women in their seventies who've devoted their entire adult lives to making art. They show us what they do and how they do it. Lana Wilson is a mother and grandmother who has used her seemingly boundless energy to become a well known ceramic artist. Jeanne DuPrau, author of The City of Ember, is a New York Times best selling children's writer. And Nan Golub, a lesbian painter living in New York City, studied with Richard Diebenkorn and Deborah Remington and has been compared to Rufino Tomayo. Join us at the March San Jose meeting to see the film and meet the director!

San Jose Peninsula PFLAG 2015 Scholarships

Each year our chapter offers scholarships to high school seniors who reside in or attend high school in Santa Clara or San Mateo County. The scholarships are awarded to students of any gender identity or sexual orientation, whose history, activities, and personal plans demonstrate support for justice and equality for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender persons. This year we will award up to eight $3,000 scholarships to students who will attend a two- or four-year college, university, or business/technical school in the fall of 2015. This represents a $1000 per scholarship increase over 2014 and two additional scholarships, thanks to a generous donation from one of our members. Please encourage graduating high school seniors (LGBTQ and allies) to apply. The deadline is Tuesday, March 31, 2015.

An application, can be downloaded from our website:
